

Selected publications

- To be published later this year at Routledge: The Russian-Ukrainian War. Challenges to the Documentation and the Prosecution of International Crimes supervised by the Pilecki Institute, Patrycja Grzebyk and Dominika Uczkiewicz as a scientific editor's board. Chapter 10: "Center for Civil Liberties: Chronicles of crimes committed after Russia's Invasion of Ukraine"
- Roman Nekoliak, "The Russian Invasion of Ukraine Echoes of the Great War in the twenty-first Century" Western Front Association (WFA), 132: October 2023 Special Edition, p. 23–30.
<https://www.westernfrontassociation.com/stand-to/132-october-2023-special-edition/>
- World Wars, Human Rights & Humanitarian Law conversation with Roman Nekoliak
<https://goodmenproject.com/featured-content/world-w>
- Dr. Roman Nekoliak on International Human Rights and Ukraine.
<https://goodmenproject.com/featured-content/roman-nekoliak-international-human-rights-ukraine-sjbn/>
- Roman Nekoliak: Wartime Constitutionalism and the Politics of Constitutional Review in Ukraine, VerfBlog, 2024/8/09,
<https://verfassungsblog.de/constitutional-review-ukraine-criminal-procedure/>, DOI: 10.59704/8116d5fc53cdff74. (co-authored Andrii Nekoliak)